For Sale : € 30,000

Description
Set in a quiet and attractive part of the capital, this residential field in Panagia, Nicosia offers a stake in a sizeable stretch of land within easy reach of everyday city life. Shops, services and the amenities of the wider area are all close at hand, and good connecting roads make getting around simple. It is urban convenience without the bustle of the centre.

The land covers a generous 14298 m² in total, with an even surface that is easy to walk and easy to picture. Its shape is irregular, but it has direct road access along one side, with further roads reaching it from another, so arriving and moving around the land is straightforward. Zoned as residential land, it sits in an honest, unpretentious setting where the character of the neighbourhood speaks for itself.

This sale is for a one-thirtieth share of the field. A calm, beautiful corner of Nicosia, level ground and road access on more than one side make a strong case for a closer look.
