Description
Life in Giolou moves at village pace, with cafés and restaurants within walking distance and the heart of the community only a short way off. Here, a residential field of 3,679 m² offers room for a home in a setting with character and a closer connection to nature, away from the pace of city life.

The land has a regular shape and a sloping surface. It is landlocked, with no direct road access. Its residential zoning makes a home its natural use.

Beyond the village, the waters of Evretou Lake are a short drive away for walks and open air, and the neighbouring villages of Theletra and Miliou are within easy driving distance too. Supermarkets and shops are a short drive away.

This is substance over show: village land in Giolou, close to its centre and to the countryside around it.
