Description
For sale in Armou, this residential field sits among authentic Cypriot village surroundings, with restaurants and cafés within walking distance. It is a setting where everyday village life and the wider Paphos area meet comfortably.

The ground is flat and faces southwest, making it an uncomplicated space to picture a future home on. The land also has direct road access. Its residential zoning sets the general direction: somewhere to live, rooted in a setting with a strong local identity.

Daily needs are well covered. Supermarkets and shops, a medical centre or pharmacy, parks and sports venues are all a short drive away. So are schools, including The International School of Paphos, and Paphos General Hospital. Neighbouring Marathounta is close by, and the Limassol – Paphos Motorway brings the rest of the island within easy reach.

This sale is for a half share of the land, which totals 669 m².

Level ground, village life on the doorstep and town convenience a short drive away give this corner of Armou an honest appeal.
