Description

Small Development and High-Value Living

The Foundation of Your Future. This prime residential plot in the Dali area represents a premier opportunity for custom home development in one of Nicosia's most sought-after suburban districts. Falling within the Ka6 planning zone with a 90% building density and a 50% coverage factor, the property is perfectly suited for a spacious two-story family residence or a high-value development project. In March 2026, the local real estate market has been fundamentally revitalized by the landmark January 1st tax reform, which fully abolished stamp duty on all new property contracts and removed the Special Defence Contribution on rental income, drastically improving the net position for long-term investors. Furthermore, the 2026 market is bolstered by the 6th Edition of the Housing Scheme for the Revitalization of Mountainous, Buffer Zone, and Disadvantaged Areas, which launched on March 2, 2026, offering significant financial grants for eligible applicants building primary residences in communities like Dali. The plot's positioning in a well-established residential area ensures a secure and appreciating asset, a standard of smart investment we have guided for 3 decades of experience.

Description Residential plot in Dali area. This property falls within Residential Planning Zone Ka6 with a building factor of 90% and a coverage coefficient of 50%. The plot benefits from a registered road, ensuring immediate access to utilities and infrastructure. This residential land offers a level surface ready for immediate construction and is situated in a high-demand residential pocket. The Ka6 zone's 90% building factor combined with a 10-meter height allowance is a strategic advantage, allowing for the creation of a modern family home or a small-scale development with extensive outdoor amenities, capitalizing on the area's excellent accessibility and the growing demand for high-quality suburban living in 2026.
