For Sale : € 75,000

Description
Schools, supermarkets and shops within walking distance give this part of Palaiometocho an easy everyday rhythm, with the life of the village all around. Here, a residential field of 670 m² offers room for a home where the essentials of the week are close at hand.

The land is rectangular and its ground is even, a simple, regular shape that makes it easy to picture a house taking form. Access is along a dirt road.

When the working week is done, the nature spots of Gerogiannis and Lefkovounos are a short drive away and offer a change of scene without going far. Restaurants and cafés are within a short drive too, for unhurried evenings out.

A level, well-shaped piece of land in an unpretentious, welcoming village, where a home of your own could settle into the pace of authentic Cypriot village life.
