For Sale : € 130,000

Description
Café tables and a village shop sit right beside this two-storey house in the heart of Pano Panagia, just a short stroll from the village church and the community council. Here everyday life stays close at hand: a morning coffee next door, fresh supplies for lunch, an evening meal out, all within a few steps of home.

Built around 1995, the house offers generous living space over its two floors, with a semi-basement below that adds a useful extra level. It stands on a compact plot in a residential part of the village, keeping the comfort of a full-sized home and the ease of a smaller plot.

The surroundings invite you further out. The Kannaviou Reservoir is a short drive away for open water and green hills, and Kykkos Monastery lies within a drive for a day among the region's heritage.

A roomy year-round home where the life of the village begins at your door.
