Description
This Pentalia field in Cyprus offers 8,696 m² of agricultural land in an open countryside setting within the Paphos district. The ground has an irregular shape and a sloping surface, and its agricultural zoning suits farming and planting. The field has no direct road access of its own.

The village centre is a short drive away, and the villages of Agia Marina Kelokedaron and Nea Pentalia are also close by. The Limassol–Paphos motorway and other main roads serve the wider region. This is a generous piece of Cypriot farmland in a rural landscape, away from dense development.
