Description
Space is what sets this home apart. It is a single-storey detached house for sale in Mitsero, standing on 20,068 m² of agricultural land, with a swimming pool and a yard to enjoy outdoors.

Inside, life is simple and easy. An open-plan living, dining and kitchen area forms the heart of the house, with two bedrooms and a bathroom alongside, all on one level. Built in 2007, it offers comfortable everyday spaces without fuss. A separate auxiliary building of about 45 m² adds useful extra room.

Village life is close at hand. The village centre, schools, a supermarket, cafés and restaurants are all a short drive away, as are neighbouring Agrokipia and the open landscape around Mitsero Mines Lake. Main roads and the motorway are a drive away when the city calls.

With so much land around the house, there is room to grow, to farm and to spread out, and the relaxed rural setting brings authentic Cypriot village life to your doorstep. A home with a pool, its own land and space to breathe.
