Description
In the village of Drymou in the Paphos district, this agricultural field covers 4,683 m² of sloping ground with an irregular outline. The village centre is a short drive away, as are the neighbouring villages of Simou and Lasa, and main roads can be reached by car.

A public pathway along one boundary gives access to the land. Its agricultural zoning suits farming or planting, and the slope will shape how the ground is worked. This is a sizeable piece of agricultural land in the Drymou countryside.
