Set within the coastal municipality of Pegeia, a short drive from the villages of Kathikas and Akoursos, this agricultural field covers 7846 m² of open countryside. The ground is irregular in shape, with a sloping surface and a southern aspect, and the land has direct road access onto a public road.

Zoned for agricultural use, it lends itself to farming or planting. Petrol stations are a short drive away, and the main roads and the Limassol–Paphos Motorway are within a drive. This sale is for a two-twenty-fourth share of the field. It is a versatile, south-facing piece of farmland with straightforward access.
