For Sale : € 205,000

Description
Picture strolling to the village centre of Dali for morning errands, then coming home to a detached two-storey house on a level corner plot. It sits in the Agios Konstantinos & Elenis quarter, with direct road access along two of its sides.

Downstairs, the living room, dining area and kitchen share one open-plan space. Cooking, long meals and easy evenings can all unfold together, with nobody shut away in another room. A utility room and a guest WC take care of the practical side of daily life. Upstairs, three bedrooms give everyone room to settle in properly. The master bedroom has its own en-suite, and a family bathroom serves the other two. Outside, a covered parking space keeps the car in the shade.

Beyond the front door, the village centre is within walking distance, and the town of Latsia is a short drive away. Everyday needs stay close while home keeps its village feel.

The sale is a 706/2000 share of the property. Built in 2006, this is a house where the comforts of home and the heart of the village sit side by side.
