Description
Polemi is a Paphos village with a strong local identity. Here a morning can begin with coffee at a café you reach on foot and end with a stroll through nearby green spaces. Within that village life lies a large residential field of 5,017 m².

The land slopes across an irregular outline. Its residential zoning gives room for a home of your own, rooted in the everyday rhythm of the village. The land has no direct road access.

Shops and the village centre are a short drive away, and the neighbouring village of Psathi is a short drive further. Restaurants and parks stay within walking distance.

A sizeable piece of village land, with room to shape a home around Polemi's cafés and green spaces.
