Liopetri offers the warmth of authentic Cypriot village life...

For Sale : € 50,000

Description
Liopetri offers the warmth of authentic Cypriot village life, with restaurants and cafés within walking distance and the greenery of Liopetri National Forest Park a short drive away. In this setting lies a sizeable residential field, a simple, uncomplicated piece of the village to call your own.

The land has a regular shape and an even, smooth surface, so it is easy to picture how a home could sit on it. Its residential zoning sets the general direction: room for a home, with village life gathered close around it and open green spaces within reach for slow weekend afternoons.

The field has no direct road access. The sale is for a 2/3 share of the field.

Even ground, a residential setting and the character of Liopetri around it make this a piece of land worth imagining a future on.
