Description
In the village community of Mammari, in Nicosia District, a level residential field of 1,673 m² offers room for a home of your own, set within the life of the village around it.

The land is rectangular with an even surface, a simple and honest shape that makes it easy to picture a house taking form and the way you would arrange your days around it. Along one side it fronts a road, so the land has direct road access.

Residential zoning gives the land its plain purpose: a home in Mammari. One point to know: the land lies next to the Dead Zone.

Unpretentious and straightforward, this is a piece of land that invites you to imagine the home you would build here and the village life that would surround it.
