Open countryside and the easy calm of village life surround...

For Sale : € 180,000

Description
Open countryside and the easy calm of village life surround this residential field in Anarita, a Paphos community set in a beautiful natural environment. The heart of the village lies a short way off, close enough to feel part of its everyday rhythm, while the land itself keeps an open sense of space.

The field spreads across 22,759 m² of even ground with an irregular outline, and it has direct road access from a public road. Its residential zoning gives room for a home, with the natural landscape all around as its backdrop. The Asprokremmos dam lies a little further out, and Paphos International Airport is a short drive away.

It is a place to step away from the hurry of city life and let the countryside set the tone of the day, with authentic village surroundings just beyond the boundary.

The sale is of a 1/3 share of the field.
