For Sale : € 50,000

Description
Anarita, a village in the Paphos district, is the setting for this residential field, with the village centre only a short drive away. Paphos International Airport is also a short drive away, so arriving and leaving stays simple. The beaches and Paphos Marina are within a drive. In a residential zone, the land has room for a home within easy reach of village life. It is almost rectangular in shape, and public roads run along two of its sides, giving it direct road access. The ground slopes. Picture a home rising here, the village close by for a morning coffee or the weekly shop, and the coast within a drive when the day calls for the sea. It is a setting that keeps both village life and travel within reach. The sale is for a 1/3 share of the field. A residential field in Anarita, with roads on two sides and room for a home.
