Description
Set on a cul-de-sac in the community of Ergates, this residential plot places a future home within walking distance of the community's primary school and the local parks and green spaces. Here, everyday life can unfold close to home, with the school run and an afternoon stroll both just a few steps from your own front door.

The land is flat and neatly rectangular, an uncomplicated shape that lets your design priorities be set from the very first sketch. Its frontage onto a public road gives it direct road access. At 537 m², it offers room for a home planned around the way you want to live.

Picture mornings that begin with a short walk to school, and evenings spent in a house shaped entirely to your own taste on level ground. Life in Ergates centres on its residential streets and its open green spaces, and this plot sits right in the middle of that daily rhythm.

A level, well-proportioned plot in a residential corner of Ergates, waiting for the home you have in mind.
