For Sale : € 330,000

Description
Sea views and a beach within walking distance set the tone for this residential field in Pigenia. Here, life by the water is part of the everyday. The sea is in sight from the land itself, and the shore is a stroll away rather than a drive.

The field is large, at 9,923 m², and lies in a residential zone, so there is room for a home in a relaxed coastal setting. It has direct road access, with a registered road along one side and a dirt track giving a second way in from another.

Daily life is easy to arrange. Shops are a short drive away, and so is the neighbouring village of Kato Pyrgos. Picture slow evenings with the sea before you and a short walk down to the beach whenever the mood takes you.

This is a sizeable piece of land where the sea is both a view and an easy walk away.
