Room to breathe and room to build: in Pigenia, in the Nicosi...

For Sale : € 60,000

Description
Room to breathe and room to build: in Pigenia, in the Nicosia district, a large residential field of 4,683 m² gives you the freedom to plan a home on your own terms.

The zoning is residential, and up to two floors may be built. That leaves plenty of scope to shape a house around the generous size of the plot, with space to think about how you want your days to feel here.

Daily needs are easy to meet, with shops and the neighbouring villages of Agios Theodoros Tillirias and Mosfili a short drive away. The motorway is not far off for longer journeys. Further afield, Pomos Reservoir makes a fine drive out into nature.

Straightforward and without fuss, this is land with real substance, waiting for a home to take shape.
