For Sale : € 145,000

Description
Mountain views stretch out from this land on the very edge of Vavla, where village life carries on a short drive away and the hills roll into the distance. Two adjacent fields come together here as one large, open piece of countryside, 19,399 m² in all.

The land mixes residential and agricultural zoning. On the residential part there is room for a home of up to two floors, facing that mountain outlook, while the agricultural part lends itself to farming. Access comes along a rural road that the fields front onto.

Around it lies authentic Cypriot village life. The centre of Vavla is a short drive away for everyday errands and a coffee, and Kalavasos Lake is close enough for an easy outing into nature.

Picture a morning walk across your own fields, with the village nearby and the mountains filling the horizon. This is land to plan around a view and a slower, grounded rhythm.
