Description
Two neighbouring agricultural fields sit in the Pera area of Nicosia, a short distance from the centre of Kampia village. Analiontas and Kapedes are also a short drive away, and the Nicosia–Limassol Motorway is within a drive. Together the fields cover 28,763 m² of farmland, and a dirt road gives access to the land. The agricultural zoning points to farming and planting. The larger field is offered as an 80% share, while the smaller field is offered in full. This is a sizeable area of agricultural land made up of two adjoining parcels.
