Description
In the village of Meladeia in the Paphos district, this agricultural field covers 26,080 m² of land zoned for farming. It has direct road access along a long frontage, so getting onto the land is simple.

The village centre is a short drive away, as are the neighbouring villages of Peristerona and Filousa Chrysochous, and a petrol station is close by. The main road network can be reached by car. This is a sizeable piece of farmland with plenty of room to plant and cultivate.
