For Sale : € 120,000

Description
Sea views set the tone for these two adjoining residential fields in Psematismenos, a Larnaca village where the surroundings are mostly homes and the beaches lie a short drive away. Together the fields extend to 8,697 m², a sizeable stretch of land sold as one.

The residential zoning allows building of up to two floors, with room for a home that makes the most of the outlook. A registered road runs along the fields, giving direct road access, and government-owned land borders them on one side.

Getting around is straightforward. The Nicosia–Limassol motorway is easy to reach, and Larnaca International Airport is about 25 km away, so the wider island and flights home stay within comfortable reach.

Here, the pleasure of a sea view meets the freedom to plan a home on generous land, in a residential corner of Larnaca with the coast close by.
