Description
Where Skarinou opens out into the countryside, this large residential field lies only a short stroll from the heart of the village. Everyday shops are within walking distance. The motorway linking Larnaca, Limassol and Nicosia is easy to reach, so a village setting never has to mean feeling far from the rest of the island.

At 8,696 m², the land sits entirely within a residential zone, and homes of up to two floors may be built here. That leaves generous room for a family home with plenty of land around it. The size of the field also allows a small group of homes or a division into separate plots.

Weekends could bring a short drive out to the Dipotamos Reservoir, with the village waiting close by on your return. Life here can follow a gentler rhythm, away from the pace of the city.

A sizeable stretch of Skarinou countryside within easy reach of the village centre, ready to be shaped by your own plans.
