For Sale : € 80,000

Description
A short distance from the traditional square of Kathikas, this residential field pairs a sizeable stretch of land with the everyday character of a Paphos village. The cafés, the old square and the rhythm of village life are all close at hand.

Covering 5,352 m², the land lies within a residential zone, with room for a home of up to two floors. Its size leaves plenty of scope to think about how a house could sit on the plot and how much open ground to keep around it. A road lies a short way off.

The village holds its own appeal, and the wider area is within easy reach. Peyia is a short drive away, the sands of Coral Bay can be reached by car, and Paphos International Airport is about 20 km away.

A large residential field with the heart of Kathikas nearby and the coast within a drive.
