For Sale : € 28,500

Description
Just beyond the heart of Nea Pentalia, this residential field lies within easy reach of everyday village life. The neighbouring village of Pentalia is a short drive away, while Paphos International Airport, about 15 km off, keeps the wider world close.

The field covers 17,726 m² of land zoned for residential use. It fronts a registered public road, so it has direct road access. Up to two floors may be built here, and the zoning leaves room for a home in a village setting, a short walk from the centre of the community.

Picture a place to plan around: the village at its door, the road at its edge, and the Paphos district stretching out around it. Restaurants and cafés are a short drive away, and the ancient Sanctuary of Aphrodite is within a drive for unhurried afternoons.

The sale is a one-quarter share of the field, equal to about 4,432 m², and a distribution agreement is already in place. It is residential land close to the heart of Nea Pentalia, with its own road frontage.
