For Sale : € 170,000

Description
Imagine settling into village life in Kokkinotrimithia, with restaurants, cafés and shops within walking distance and the village centre only a short drive away. Here, everyday errands can feel unhurried, and the familiar rhythm of a Nicosia village stays close at hand.

This field covers 4,115 m² of flat ground with a regular shape, a straightforward canvas for a home of your own. It lies in a residential zone where up to two floors may be built, and it has direct road access. Picture the plans taking shape on level land, with the village going about its day around you.

For wider journeys, the Nicosia–Deneia motorway is within easy reach, linking this residential setting to the rest of the district. Nature is never far either, with the green spot of Gerogiannis a short drive away.

The sale is a three-quarter share of the land.

Flat land, a residential zone and village life on the doorstep make this corner of Kokkinotrimithia a place worth imagining your future in.
