Description
Picture a life lived between the sea and the village. In Kato Pyrgos, a short distance from the beachfront, this level residential field of 4,683 m² offers a generous setting for your next home. The ground is flat throughout, so it is easy to stand on it and imagine where the house could rise. The land is zoned for residential use and allows building of up to two floors. With this much ground, there is room for a home and real scope for development. The main road between Kato Pyrgos and Pano Pyrgos is close by, and the village centre is a short drive away. Cafés, shops and everyday services are all within easy reach. Morning swims, unhurried village evenings and the open coast of this corner of Nicosia district could all become part of daily life. Sizeable, level and close to the sea, this is a field where a coastal home can take shape at your own pace.
