Just beyond the centre of Vavla, where the village gives way...

For Sale : € 41,000

Description
Just beyond the centre of Vavla, where the village gives way to a calmer setting, this large residential field lies a few minutes' walk or drive from the heart of village life. It offers a peaceful edge-of-village position while keeping the village within easy reach.

The field covers 4,348 m² and sits within a residential zone, giving room for a home of your own design, with permission to build on two floors. A road linking Vavla with the neighbouring villages runs close by.

Around it, everyday life keeps an unhurried rhythm. Shops, cafés and schools are a short drive away, and so is the natural setting of Kalavasos Lake for a change of scenery. The motorway between Nicosia and Limassol is a drive away, so the wider island stays within reach.

A generous piece of residential land in a peaceful village setting, ready to be imagined as the place you build your life around.
