Description
Sea views and a beach close by set the mood for this large coastal field in Agios Theodoros, in the Larnaca district. The land stretches across 28,438 m² of flat ground, made up of two adjoining parcels, with panoramic views of the sea and a picturesque landscape all around.

Part of the field lies in a touristic zone, which opens it to tourist use, and part lies in an agricultural zone, suited to farming. The field has no direct road access.

Life here moves at the gentle pace of the coast. Restaurants and cafés are within walking distance, and Larnaca International Airport is about 20 km away, so the island is never far from home. Standing on this level ground, with the sea open before you and the shore a short way off, it is easy to sense what draws people to this part of Cyprus's southern coast.

Flat land, open sea views and the beach nearby make this a stretch of Agios Theodoros well worth getting to know.
