Description
A short drive from the centre of Agia Varvara village, this large site of 595,810 m² brings many parcels together into one holding, planned as a residential and resort development. Internal roads and masterplan landscaping are already laid out across the land.

A completed two-storey entrance building and nine unfinished villas stand on the site. Three roads lead into the land. The Limassol–Paphos motorway is within easy reach, and Episkopi and Marathounta are a short drive away. This is a sizeable piece of land, held as one consolidated site and planned for development.
