Description
Just beyond the edge of Pera Pedi, this sizeable field of 2,676 m² offers the chance to plan a home within easy reach of village life. The village itself is close at hand, so everyday moments, such as a coffee in the centre or a visit to neighbouring Koilani, need only a short drive.

The land is zoned for residential use, with room for a home of up to two floors. Its almost rectangular shape keeps the layout simple to think through, giving a clear canvas for placing a house and arranging the space around it.

A footpath runs along one side of the field, and the nearest registered road lies a short way off rather than at the boundary. A main road also passes close by, linking the area with the wider Limassol district.

A generous, well-shaped piece of residential land on the doorstep of Pera Pedi, waiting to take the shape of the home you have in mind.
