Description
In Pigenia, everyday village life sits close at hand, and the beach is only a short drive away. Here, a residential field of 2,634 m² offers a sizeable piece of land on which to shape a home of your own.

The residential zoning allows a home of up to two floors. That gives you room to plan the house you have in mind and to decide how it sits on the land.

The village centre lies close by, and the motorway is a short drive off, much like the coast. For days out, the waters of Pomos Reservoir are within a drive, and the neighbouring villages of Mosfili and Agios Theodoros Tillirias are a short drive from home.

A large stretch of residential land, close to both the village and the sea, ready for the home you picture here.
