Description
In the village of Agioi Trimithias, in the Nicosia district, a residential field of 5,070 m² offers real breathing space for the home you have in mind. Neighbouring Paliometocho is only a short drive away, so the village feels connected to the area around it.

The ground is relatively flat, which makes it easy to picture a house taking shape here. The residential zoning allows a home of up to two floors, and the sizeable plot leaves generous room around it for the outdoor life you plan.

Everyday needs are within reach. Schools and supermarkets are a short drive away, and the village community centre is not far. Life here can stay rooted in the village while the wider area remains close at hand.

A large stretch of residential land in Agioi Trimithias, ready for you to imagine the home and the life you want to build on it.
