For Sale : € 95,000

Description
Close to the heart of Kakopetria, with the village's restaurants and cafés within walking distance, these two fields together cover 7,814 m² of land. Picture an unhurried morning in the village, a coffee among neighbours, then a short stroll back to your own ground.

The land combines a residential part, with room for a home of your own, and an agricultural part suited to farming. Both fields have a fairly regular, rectangular shape, which makes the land easy to read and to plan around. The land has no direct road access.

Beyond the village, Troodos National Forest Park is a short drive away, so its green landscape is never far from your days here. Galata is also a short drive, adding a neighbouring village to explore.

Here, room for a home and land to cultivate come together, with Kakopetria's everyday life only a stroll away.
