Description
Tseri is a residential village on the edge of Nicosia, with Latsia and Lakatameia a short drive away and the motorways towards Limassol and around the capital within easy reach. Here, this residential field offers the chance to shape a home of your own while staying close to the life of the city.

The land is flat and covers 1,756 m², and a dirt road gives it direct road access along its frontage. Its residential zoning points to a home, and up to two floors may be built. The whole field can be divided into two plots.

Picture a new house rising on level ground, with the town centre, cafés and restaurants a short drive away for an easy morning coffee or the weekly errands. For days out, the ancient sites of Tamassos and Idalion are a drive away.

A distribution agreement is in place. The sale is for a half share of the field, about 878 m². Level land, its own road access and Nicosia close at hand make this corner of Tseri a fine place to begin building.
