For Sale : € 81,000

Description
A short distance from the centre of Athienou, three flat fields offer level ground on the edge of village life in the Larnaca district. The land is zoned for residential use, and the gentle, even surface makes it a natural starting point for a home. Together the three fields cover 16,046 m². The zoning allows building of up to two floors, and access to all three runs through the largest field, which has road frontage. Owning a part of this land means having a foothold close to Athienou, with the village centre near enough to stay part of its everyday rhythm and level ground that keeps building plans simple. The sale is a one-sixth share in each of the three fields, offered together as a single bundle. It is flat residential land within easy reach of the village centre.
