For Sale : € 65,000

Description
Parekklisia, a village community in the Limassol district, is the setting for this residential field. The village centre is a short drive away, and the Nicosia - Limassol Motorway is within easy reach for trips into town and across the island.

The land is rectangular with an even surface, a regular, level shape that is simple to plan around. It runs along a road on one side, so it has direct road access and a generous frontage. Its residential zoning allows a home of up to two floors. Picture a family house rising on level ground, with the everyday life of Parekklisia close at hand.

The sale is a 7% share of the field. A distribution agreement is in place, and it gives this share its own defined part of the land.

Level ground, a road along its edge and a village setting near Limassol make this field a promising place to begin a home.
