For Sale : € 130,000

Description
Close to Latsia, in the residential setting of Geri, this field offers a calm stretch of level ground. Schools are within walking distance, and the open water of Athalassa Lake is a short drive away for an afternoon outdoors.

At 3,500 m², the land is rectangular and flat. It has direct road access along a generous frontage, so it is simple to reach and easy to picture as the setting for a future home. The residential zoning allows up to two floors, leaving room to imagine a house shaped around everyday living, with the neighbourhood close at hand.

The motorway is close by, so the wider Nicosia area is within easy reach while home stays in a village setting. Daily life can move between the quiet of your own plot and the convenience of a well-served neighbourhood. The sale is for a one-half share of the field.

Level ground, a road at its edge and Geri all around make a sound starting point for a home in this corner of Nicosia.
