In the residential heart of Agios Pavlos, Paphos, daily life comes easily. Shops and schools sit right beside this semi-detached house, and cafés and restaurants are a pleasant walk away.

The whole home is laid out on the ground floor. A spacious living and dining area gathers around a fireplace, a welcoming focus on winter evenings. The kitchen has its own small dining corner for unhurried breakfasts. Three bedrooms, a bathroom and a guest toilet complete the layout, giving comfortable everyday spaces without stairs to climb.

Outside, a private courtyard, a fenced yard and an open veranda bring the day into the fresh air. A parking space sits under a pergola. Pets are allowed.

The house is currently let until 31 May 2031. The sale covers a half share of the plot, with a distribution agreement in place.
