For Sale : € 120,000

Description
A short walk from the heart of Liopetri, this sizeable residential field sits within the everyday life of the village. The primary school is close by, and restaurants and cafés are within walking distance, so mornings can begin with a stroll for coffee and end with dinner in the village.

The land covers 6,585 m² and is zoned for residential use, offering room for a home in a setting where neighbours, shops and the village square are part of daily life. It abuts a road, giving it direct road access, and its size leaves generous scope to plan a home around the way you want to live, with space to breathe around it.

When the weekend calls for open air, the green landscape of Liopetri National Forest Park is a short drive away, a pleasant change of pace from the village streets.

The sale is of a 66.6% share of the field.

Here, a future home would feel part of Liopetri from the very first day, with village life right on the doorstep.
