For Sale : € 190,000

Description
Life in Liopetri moves at village pace, with cafés and restaurants within a stroll and a primary school close by. Here, four adjacent fields in a residential zone come together as one sizeable holding, with room for a home in an established village setting.

Lying side by side, the fields offer the freedom to plan a house on your own terms from the very first sketch. You can decide how it sits on the land and how it meets the neighbourhood around it, so the home grows from your own ideas rather than someone else's.

Beyond the village, the greenery of Liopetri National Forest Park is a short drive away for unhurried walks, and neighbouring Frenaros is close at hand. It is an easy rhythm of everyday life, with village comforts nearby and open nature within reach.

Two of the four fields are part shares, of 50% and 68%. A distribution agreement is in place.

A residential setting among the life of Liopetri, with the space to begin the home you have in mind.
