For Sale : € 82,000

Description
A short way from the centre of Anglisides, this large residential field sits close to the everyday life of the village, with its school, shops and cafés only a few minutes away. It is a setting where a home can feel part of the community while keeping its own sense of space.

The land covers 19,399 m² and has a long frontage onto the road, which gives it direct road access. Its residential zoning points plainly to room for a home, set within the familiar surroundings of a Larnaca district village rather than in the bustle of town.

Beyond Anglisides, easy access to the Larnaca–Limassol motorway keeps the wider region within comfortable reach, and Larnaca International Airport is a drive away. Village life close at hand and good links further out make for a balanced, uncomplicated base.

The sale is for a 33% share of the land. It is a straightforward residential parcel with direct road access, rooted in the village and well connected beyond it.
