Description
Within the Nicosia quarter of Kaimakli lies a sizeable field of 5,017 m², zoned for residential use. Its setting is the neighbourhood around the Church of Agia Varvara, a familiar landmark of the quarter.

A field of this size gives a real sense of space within the city's own district. The residential zoning sets its general use as a home, and the land sits among the streets and parish life of Kaimakli rather than out in the countryside.

The land has no direct road access. It also lies within the UN Buffer Zone, and anyone weighing its future should take this into account.

What stays with you is the combination of a generous area of land and a setting inside one of Nicosia's neighbourhoods, close to the church at its heart.
