For Sale : € 900,000

Description
Business life already fills the streets around this commercial land in Aglantzia. Offices, apartment blocks and commercial buildings surround it, with cafés, restaurants and public service offices right beside it. The area's main commercial streets, known for their busy trade, are within walking distance.

The land covers 1,143 m² and fronts a road on two of its sides. That gives it direct road access from two directions and a clear presence on the street. Its commercial zoning points to business use, in a neighbourhood where trade is part of everyday life.

The University of Cyprus is not far away, and the centre of Nicosia and the motorway are both easy to reach. Customers, staff and visitors can come and go with little fuss.

This is commercial ground in a working part of Aglantzia, with established business all around it and two road frontages that keep it in plain view.
