Description
In the village of Kathikas, in the Paphos district, this agricultural field covers 2,174 m². Its zoning suits farming and planting, or holding a sizeable piece of land close to the village. The village centre is a short drive away, and the neighbouring villages of Theletra and Pano Arodes are also nearby. The field has no direct road access; it is reached by a right of way across the adjoining parcel. This is a plain field of agricultural land belonging to the village of Kathikas.
