For Sale : € 590,000

Description
Cafés and restaurants within walking distance, the green open space of Athalassa a short drive away, and the everyday life of Latsia all around. This sizeable residential field lies in Agios Georgios, in a residential neighbourhood with amenities and infrastructure close at hand.

At 3,243 m², the land gives real room to plan. A generous road frontage runs along one boundary, and the opposite side meets a cul-de-sac, so there is direct road access from two sides. The source sees the field suited to a residential complex, luxury houses or high-end apartments, or to division into individual plots.

Living or building here keeps the wider region within easy reach. The Mall of Cyprus is a short drive away, and the motorway nearby links the area with central Nicosia, Larnaca and Limassol, while neighbouring Strovolos lies close by.

A large piece of residential land in the heart of Latsia, with open plans waiting to take shape.
