For Sale : € 325,000

Description
In the Agios Georgios quarter of Latsia, with Strovolos close by, this residential land of 1,099 m² sits within a planned complex of family homes. A sports stadium lies within walking distance, and Athalassa Lake is a short drive away for a morning by the water.

The land has not yet been built on. It corresponds to four maisonettes in the complex, each designed over two floors. The ground floor is planned as an open-plan kitchen and living room. The first floor is planned for four bedrooms, three of them en-suite. These plans already show how the homes are meant to look and how much room each will offer.

Four family homes are part of the plan for this land, in a residential neighbourhood with Latsia's everyday life all around it. A distribution agreement is in place.

A residential setting on the edge of Nicosia, with four family homes already set out on paper.
