For Sale : € 160,000

Description
Chryseleousa brings together a residential setting in Strovolos and easy access to the heart of Nicosia. Here, a large field of residential land sits where daily life is close at hand: schools, supermarkets and shops are all within walking distance.

The land fronts a street, so it has direct road access, and a public walkway runs along part of its boundary. Its residential zoning gives it a clear general use, with room for a home in a settled part of the city.

Picture mornings that begin with a stroll to the local shops or the school run on foot, and a short trip into the city centre whenever work or an evening out calls. Strovolos keeps everything near, while this sizeable plot offers a sense of space around it.

The sale is for a 12.5% share of the field. Residential land with road frontage in a well-connected part of Strovolos, well worth a visit.
