Description
Just a short stroll from the centre of Kynousa, this sizeable residential field puts everyday village life within easy walking distance. Mornings can begin with a walk into the village, and evenings can end with the familiar pace of a Paphos community around you.

At 2,342 m², the land gives room for a home designed around your own brief. You would decide the layout, the materials and the finish from the very first sketch, so the house that rises here reflects exactly how you want to live.

The wider area adds to the appeal. The sea lies a drive away for long summer afternoons, and the green surroundings of Argaka are a short drive off for days spent outdoors. Life here can move between the village square and the coast without hurry.

Village life on foot, the sea within reach, and room for a home that is entirely your own.
